PROGRAM FOR NEXT YEAR

In Order to Insure First-Class Attractions It Has Become Necessary to Make an Advance Guarantee, and the People Are Responding Readily.

After working for a couple of days on the "star" list for the Gainesville Chautauqua, Geo. W. Hyde feels very much gratified at the success, and also at the interest in the enterprise being manifested by the people of the city.

Quite a number have subscribed for "star" tickets at $10 each, the amounts subscribed being payable December 1. It will be noted that the class of subscribers are of the best. Mr. Hyde, who is the originator of the idea, would be glad to have others subscribe. The list may be found at his store.

Cured Consumption.
Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

SENIOR EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Interesting Meeting, at Which Much Business Was Transacted.

The Senior Epworth League of the Methodist church held a business meeting after the prayer-meeting service Wednesday evening, at which a great deal of business of importance to the League was transacted. W. R. McKinstry was chairman of the meeting. Roy E. Huffman was elected treasurer, vice W. W. Watkins, who has removed from the city.

The time for holding the business meetings was changed to Monday after the first Sunday of each month. A committee of three was appointed to consider the advisability of inviting the State League Convention to meet in this city. This conference will be held in June of the present year.

About twelve applications for membership were read and acted upon favorably. The League is growing rapidly, which is gratifying to those interested.

INTERESTING LETTER
WRITTEN BY A NOTABLE WOMAN

Mrs. Sarah E. Kellogg of Denver, Colorado, of the Woman's Relief Corps, Sends Thanks to Mrs. Pinkham.

The following letter was written by Mrs. Kellogg, of 1623 Lincoln Ave., Denver, Colo., to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.:
"For five years I was troubled with a tumor, which kept growing, causing me intense agony and great mental depression. I was unable to attend to my house work, and life became a burden to me. I was confined for days to my bed, lost my appetite, my courage and all hope. I could not bear to think of an operation, and in my distress I tried every remedy which I thought would be of any use to me, and reading of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to sick women decided to give it a trial. I felt so discouraged that I had little hope of recovery, and when I began to feel better, after the second week, thought it only meant temporary relief; but to my great surprise I found that I kept gaining, while the tumor lessened in size."

"The Compound continued to build up my general health and the tumor seemed to be absorbed, until, in seven months, the tumor was entirely gone and I a well woman. I am so thankful for my recovery that I ask you to publish my letter in newspapers, so other women may know of the wonderful curative powers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such trouble.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Health is too valuable to risk in experiments with unknown and untried medicines or methods of treatment. Remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

A STARKE MARRIAGE.

Sam T. Dell and Miss Ollie Weeks Were Happily Married Thursday.

Starke was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding Thursday, the contracting parties being Sam T. Dell of this city and Miss Ollie, the charming daughter of Col. and Mrs. W. T. Weeks of that city. The ceremony which made them man and wife was performed by Rev. J. B. Ley of Live Oak, editor of The Florida Christian Advocate, and an old friend of both the Dell and Weeks families.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, which had been tastefully and appropriately decorated for the occasion. It was a quiet affair, only relatives and a few most intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. Those from Gainesville were Dr. J. M. Dell, brother of the groom, Perry M. Colson, Misses Bessie and Pearl Colson and Merrill Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell are expected in this city this afternoon, and will make their home here.

To the happy pair The Sun, with numerous other friends, extends sincere congratulations, with the wish that their path may always be strewn with flowers.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Charles F. Lemberger of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "got a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Aroclalve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at all drug stores.

K. T. Elects Officers.

At the meeting of Pilgrim Commandery No. 7, Knights Templar, Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

W. R. Stekert, E. C.; J. G. Torrey, G.; W. W. Hampton, C. Q.; Geo. W. Hyde, treasurer; A. M. Cushman, recorder; W. B. Higdon, senior warden; W. L. Hill, junior warden; L. E. Webster, prelate; H. E. Taylor, sword bearer; A. P. Morrow, standard bearer; R. McClellan, warden; M. B. Saunders, sentinel.

The Best Cough Syrup.

S. L. Apple, Ex-Probate Judge, Ottawa Co., Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

FOUND DEAD WOMAN IN CAB.

Man Also Found in an Unconscious Condition by Police.

New York, March 16.—The body of a woman who had been dead several hours and a man unconscious and apparently dying were found in a taxicab which was driven up to a Brooklyn police station on a gallop early today.

The man, who was suffering from alcoholism and possibly from the effects of a drug, may recover. Both he and the driver of the cab have been detained by the police pending an investigation of the affair. Although the condition of the man was so serious that he could give the police little information which would aid them in their investigation, he said that his name was Thomas Deegan and that he lived in Morris street, one of the better class residential sections of Brooklyn. The dead woman, he said, was Miss Mary Savage, 30 years old. Both Deegan and Miss Savage were well dressed.

Invaluable for Rheumatism.

I have been suffering for the past few years with a severe attack of rheumatism and found that Ballard's Snow Liniment was the only thing that gave me satisfaction and tended to alleviate my pains. March 24th, 1902, John C. Dugan, Kinsman, Ill. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

WILL ESCORT THE PRESIDENT.

Confederate Veteran Camp of Louisville Will Perform the Honors.

Louisville, Ky., March 16.—The Geo. B. Easting camp, United Confederate Veterans, has accepted the invitation of the committee on arrangements to act as escort to President Roosevelt upon the occasion of his visit to Louisville, April 4.

Thirty-one years ago this camp acted in a similar capacity when President Hayes was entertained here. Arrangements for the reception of President Roosevelt are progressing favorably, but nothing definite will be announced until official notice of his arriving have been received from Washington.

It is expected, however, that the president will come by way of Cincinnati, and in that event the Louisville reception committee will meet his train at LaGrange, a few miles out, on the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Marshal.

To the Voters of Gainesville:
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of marshal, subject to the action of the citizens of Gainesville at the coming municipal election. I leave my case in their hands. If I have discharged my duty as marshal in the past, I ask their indulgence and their votes in future. If they do not think I have discharged my duty, then I resign with them. I will appreciate support, however, and promise as long as in the office to show partiality to no one. Respectfully,
CHAS. PISKOSON.

For Marshal.

To the Voters of Gainesville:
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of marshal, subject to the action of the voters of Gainesville at the coming municipal election. Have always been a loyal Democrat, am always ready to render my aid and influence in support of right and justice, and if elected promise a fair and honest service, without fear or favor. Respectfully,
D. A. ROBERTSON.

For Marshal.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Marshal of the City of Gainesville, and solicit the support of all the voters of said city at the coming election of city officers. If elected, I promise to give to all the people a vigorous and impartial exercise of the duties pertaining to that office. Respectfully,
RICHARD A. BECKER.
